

Protocol adopted by Torfaen County Borough Council for Public Petitions.

Torfaen County Borough Council

Protocol for Public Petitions

1 Introduction

Torfaen Council recognises and values the contributions of local people. Public participation is essential to ensure that the needs and aspirations of local people are at the heart of decision making.

Torfaen County Borough Council wants to hear from people who live, work and use the services of the Council about the things that matter to them.

Petitions and E-Petitions are one way for people to let us know their concerns and are part of the Council's ongoing commitment to listening to and acting on the views of the public.

Petitions can be presented to a meeting of the full Council. The dates of these meetings are shown on our website

(<https://moderngov.torfaen.gov.uk/ieListMeetings.aspx?Committeeld=137>)

Paper Petitions can be sent to us at the following address:

A petition template is shown at appendix 1 of this protocol and this will help you to see what information we need in order to consider your petition under the terms of this protocol.

From July 2022 onwards e-petitions can be created, signed and submitted online by following this link

<https://moderngov.torfaen.gov.uk/mgEPetitionListDisplay.aspx?bcr=1>

If you wish to present your petition to Full Council please contact your local councillor who will sponsor your petition and also present it on your behalf if you do not wish to present your petition personally. You can contact Democratic Services via their email address DemocraticServices@torfaen.gov.uk or phone (01495 762200 and ask to speak to a member of the Democratic Services Team.) for guidance on the process.

Petitions submitted by the petitioner to full council will not be discussed in detail at that point, unless there is an agenda item specifically relating to that issue. Petitions received at full Council will be passed to the relevant executive member/officer for proper consideration before a response is prepared and reported back to a subsequent Council meeting.

2 What should a petition include?

Petitions submitted to the Council must include:

- a clear and concise statement covering the subject of the petition - it should state what action the petitioners wish the council to take (or stop taking)
- the name and address and individual signature of any person supporting the petition

Petitions should be accompanied by contact details, including an address, for the petition organiser. This is the person we will contact to explain what we will do in response to the petition. If the petition does not identify a petition organiser, we will contact the first signature on the petition to agree who should act as the petition organiser.

The council will usually accept the petition at its next meeting, although on some occasions if this is not possible, the petition will be accepted at the following meeting.

3 Are there any petitions which the Council will not accept?

- Where a person or organisation (or someone on their behalf) has submitted a petition which is the same or substantially the same as one submitted within the previous 12 months.
- Employee matters will not be dealt with through the petitions process as they will be addressed via existing internal frameworks.
- In the period immediately before an election or referendum we may need to deal with your petition differently - if this is the case, we will explain the reasons and discuss the revised timescale which will apply.
- If a petition does not follow the guidelines, the council may decide not to do anything further with it. In this case, we will write to you to explain the reasons.
- Petitions will not be accepted if they are considered to be vexatious, abusive, defamatory, discloses confidential or personal information or where its publication may constitute a criminal offence.

We will explain our reasons in writing if your petition has not been accepted.

4 How will the Council respond to petitions?

If your petition is about something over which the council has no direct control, we will consider making representations on behalf of the community to the relevant body. Where possible we will work with these partners to respond to your petition. If we are not able to do this for any reason, then we will explain this to you.

If your petition is about something that a different council is responsible for, we will consider what the best method is for responding to it. This might consist of simply forwarding the petition to the other council but could involve other steps. In any event, we will always notify you of the action we have taken.

So that people know what we are doing in response to the petitions we receive, the details of all the petitions submitted to us will be published on our website, together with the acknowledgment and notification of the response (except in cases where this would be inappropriate).

5 E-petitions

The Council welcomes e-petitions being created and submitted through its Website

E-petitions must follow the same guidelines as for paper petitions and in addition:

- Petition organisers and subscribers must provide a valid email address as well as their name and address; and
- The period for which the petition shall be open to subscription must be determined at the outset.

The petition organiser will need to provide their name, postal address and email address, and will need to decide how long the petition is to be open for signatories.

When you create and submit an e-petition, it may take 10 working days before it is published online. The petition will be acknowledged within 10 working days and this will include a link to the petition on the Council's website.

When the e-petition reaches its end date, it will be closed to further signatures and it will automatically be submitted to Democratic Services where it will be processed in the same way as a paper based petition.

If it is considered that your petition cannot be published for any reason, the Council will contact you within this time to explain. You will be able to change and resubmit your petition if you wish. If you do not do this within 10 working days, a summary of the petition and the reason why it has not been accepted will be published under the 'rejected petitions' section of the website.

E-petitions that have been created through websites other than the Council's can be submitted to the Council but will still need to meet the criteria as set

If you would like to present an e-petition to a meeting of the Full Council, please contact the Democratic Services Team for any further advice or support via their email address DemocraticServices@torfaen.gov.uk
